1975 MANHIGAN

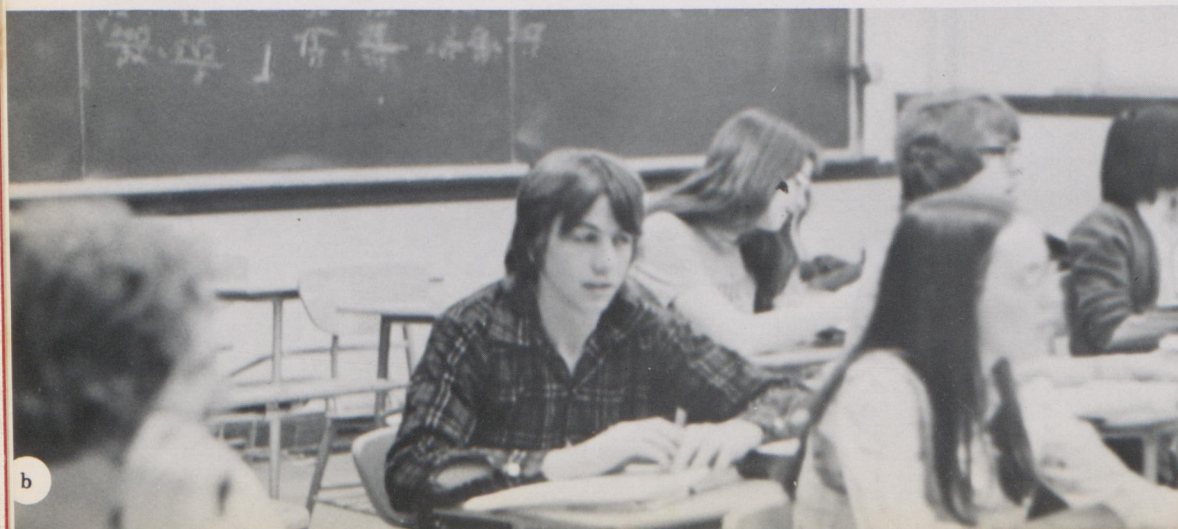

Mansfield Senior High
145 West Park Boulevard
Mansfield, Ohio

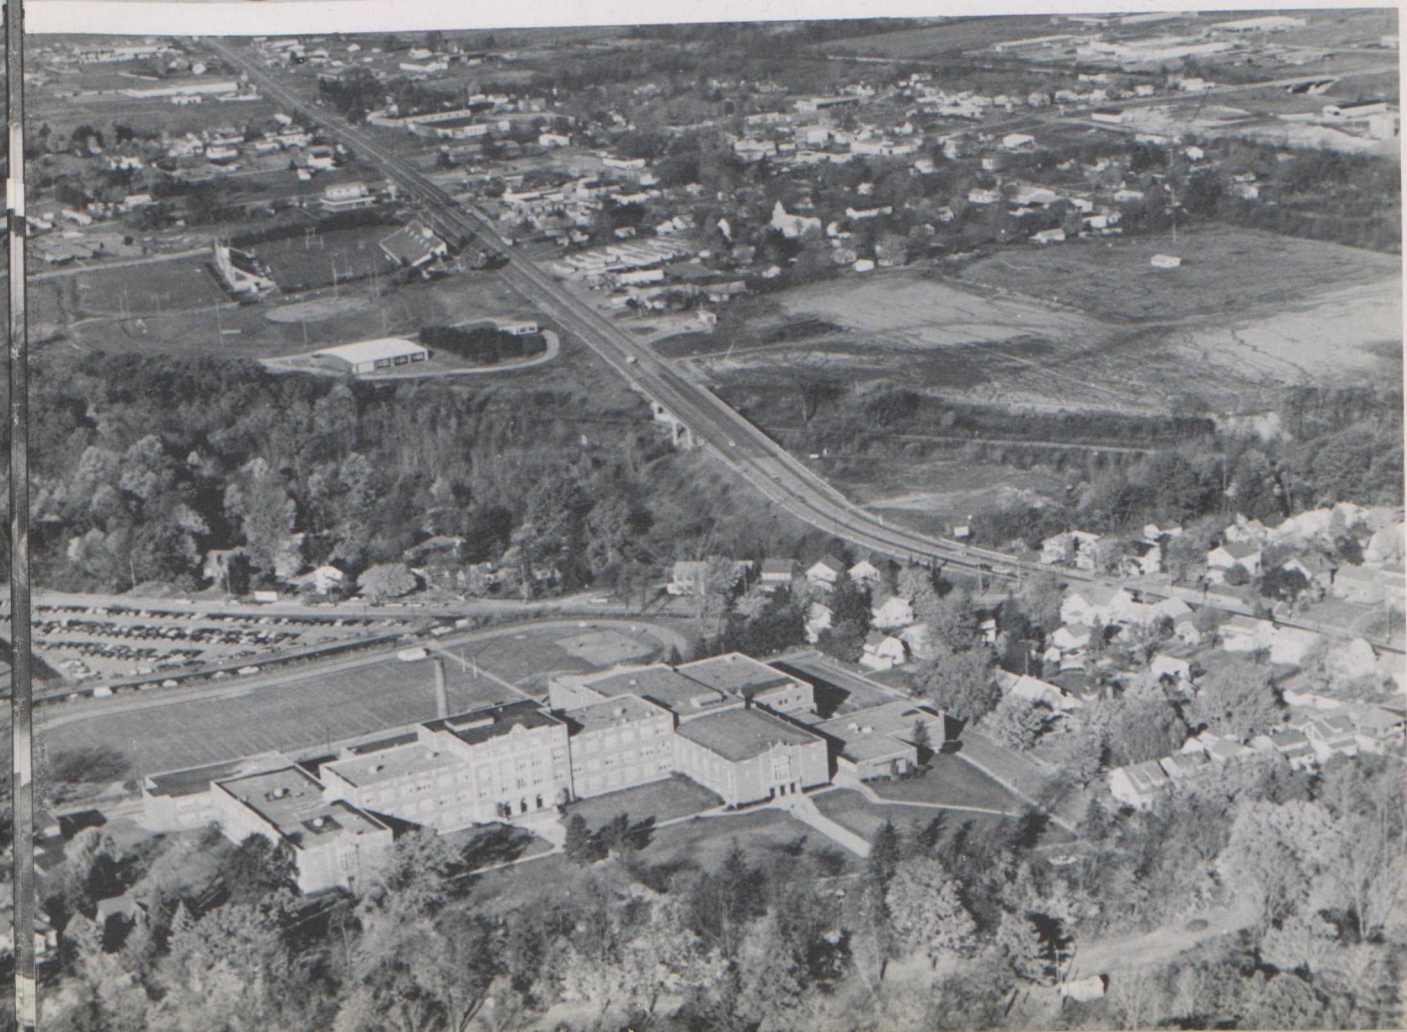

We Dedicate . . .

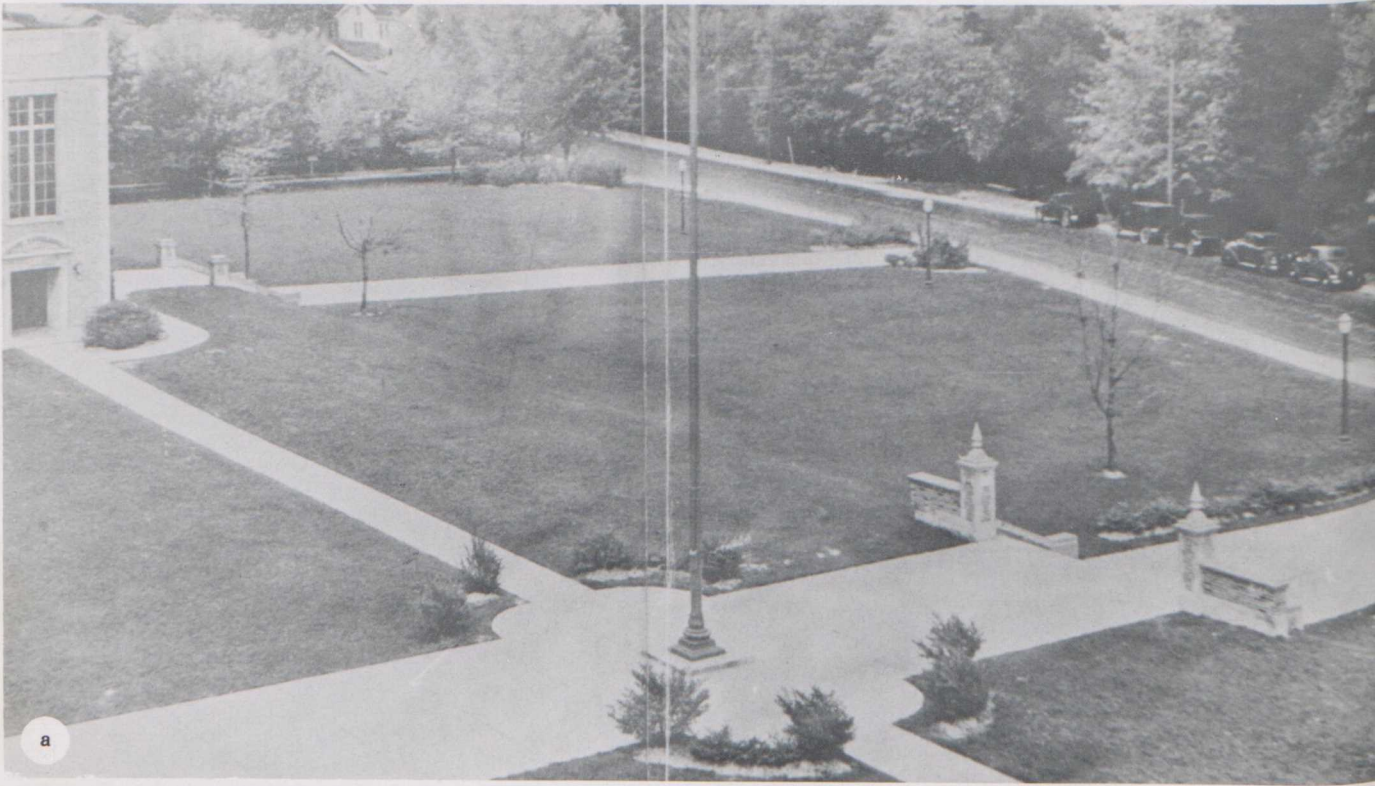

. . . the 1975 Manhigan to Mr. Don Morrison and Mr. George Cole, men who dedicated themselves to the teaching profession and devoted themselves to the students of Mansfield Senior High. They will be sincerely missed by those who knew them, but what they stood for will always be seen through the achievements of those whose lives they touched.

Class of '75 Ends Year With Enthusiasm

We the Class of 1975 now end our twelve years of schooling. Many of us leave behind warm memories and friendships as we prepare for the future.

Looking back at our sophomore year, we had a good beginning with our candy sale. The leaders were President Lesia Fletcher, Vice-President Patti Stuht, Treasurer Michele Miller, and Secretary Nina McCruter. Mr. Charles Marchant and Mr. Dalton Derr were selected as class advisors.

In our junior year homecoming was our major project. Jackie Jones was crowned queen at the assembly and reigned at the game and dance that evening. Nina McCruter remained as secretary, but the other officers changed. Michele Miller took over as president, while Steve Fraley was elected vice-president and Larry Sqrow treasurer.

Then came our most important year, our senior year. With the help of our new officers, Steve Fraley, president; Mike Paul, vice-president; Patti Stuht, secretary; and Larry Sqrow, returning as treasurer, we had a successful final year. First, Mrs. Imhoff was selected to replace Mr. Marchant as a class advisor. Next we sponsored a highly successful Varsity Varieties program. Student Council sponsored slave days for both boys and girls, a fifties day, and the hilarious donkey basketball game. Ginny Ott reigned over the J.C. Gorman Tournament as queen.

And then what we all had waited for — Class Day, the prom, and finally the Baccalaureate-Commencement service. For some this was our last time together. We hope for the future seniors that MHS will hold as many memories as it has for us.

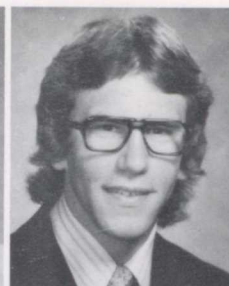

1) President of the Class of 1975 is Steve Fraley. 2) Mike Paul is the vice-president of the class. 3) Patti Stuht first served the class as sophomore vice-president and is now secretary during her senior year. 4) Treasurer of the class for the last two years is Larry Sqrow. 5) Three year advisor Mr. Derr gives some advice to Eric Ferguson during Varsity Varieties rehearsal. 6) Mrs. Imhoff is caught by surprise at once again being asked to serve as class advisor. 7) Some class executive committee members are ROW 1: Sqrow, Kiley, Wolff, Wymer, Waddell, Smith, Rickey. ROW 2: Weber, Mrs. Imhoff, Fraley, Paul.

CLASSES

The Class of 1976 started the year with the Homecoming assembly and dance. Queen Cindy Weirich and her court helped make the assembly a success, while many other juniors worked on decorations and planning for the event. The chosen theme for the affair was from the popular song "You Are the Sunshine of My Life". Ed Nolley sang the theme song for the audience.

The next project was the election of officers. An all-girl slate was elected. New officers were Julie Clay, president; Julie Jackson, vice-president; and Cheryl Rodriguez, secretary; while Liz Woods returned as treasurer.

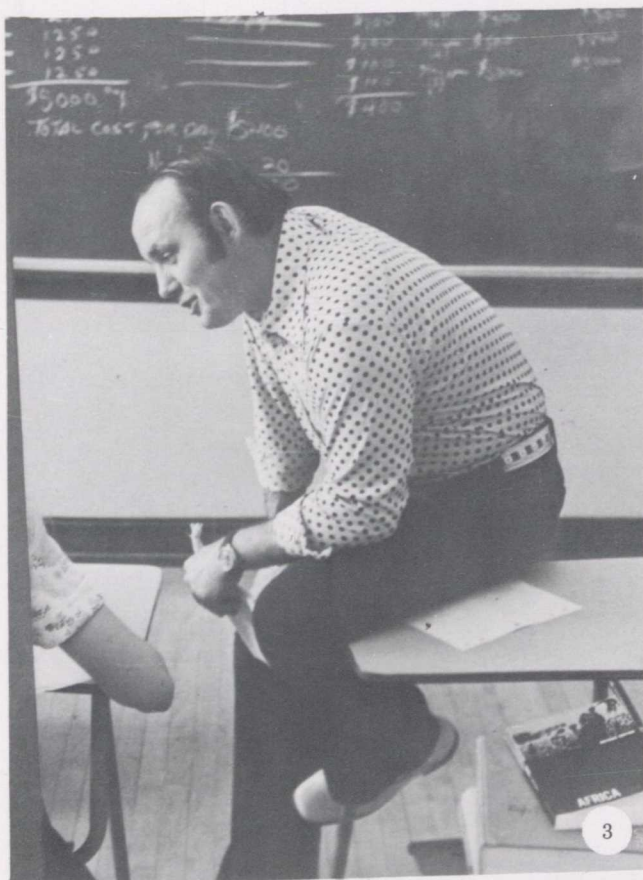

Class members added to their treasury throughout the year by holding a stationery sale, another successful student-faculty volleyball game, and various bake sales.

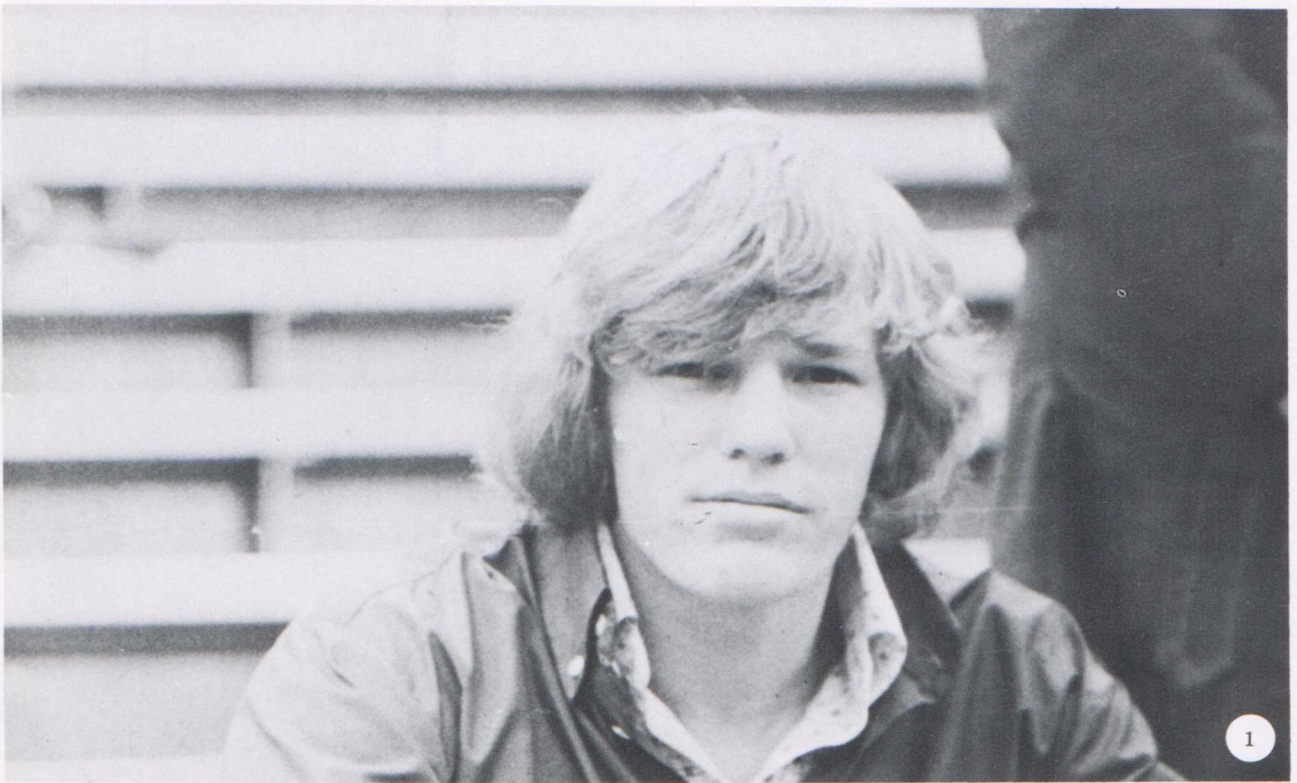

Juniors wound up the year by making advance plans for next year's Varsity Varieties.

1) Junior class officers seated are Julie Clay, president, and Julie Jackson, vice-president. Standing are Cheryl Rodriguez, secretary, and Liz Woods, treasurer. 2) The Homecoming assembly proved to be a successful venture for the class. 3) Mr. Tom Campbell, class advisor, puts forth a lot of effort on behalf of the class. 4) Mrs. Carol Hane is the newly chosen advisor this year. 5) Class Executive Committee members are KNEELING: Dillon, Darson, Geiger, Spencer, Nolley, Lehman, Weirich, Horner, Todd, Mrs. Hane, Mr. Campbell. STANDING: Letizia, Gibson, Elkins, Hyatt, Maglott, Roth, Rodriguez, Clay, Hall, Chatman, Bowers, Long, Lehnhart, Woods, Jackson, Brumm.

The Class of 1977 started out slowly, getting to know the ropes at Senior High. Elections were held early in the year with an all girl slate winning the battle. Pam Patton was elected president; Lucille Stolle, vice-president; Edith Reynolds, secretary; and Margo Davis, treasurer. Mrs. Ann Gerrell and Mr. Doug Castle were selected as advisors for the class.

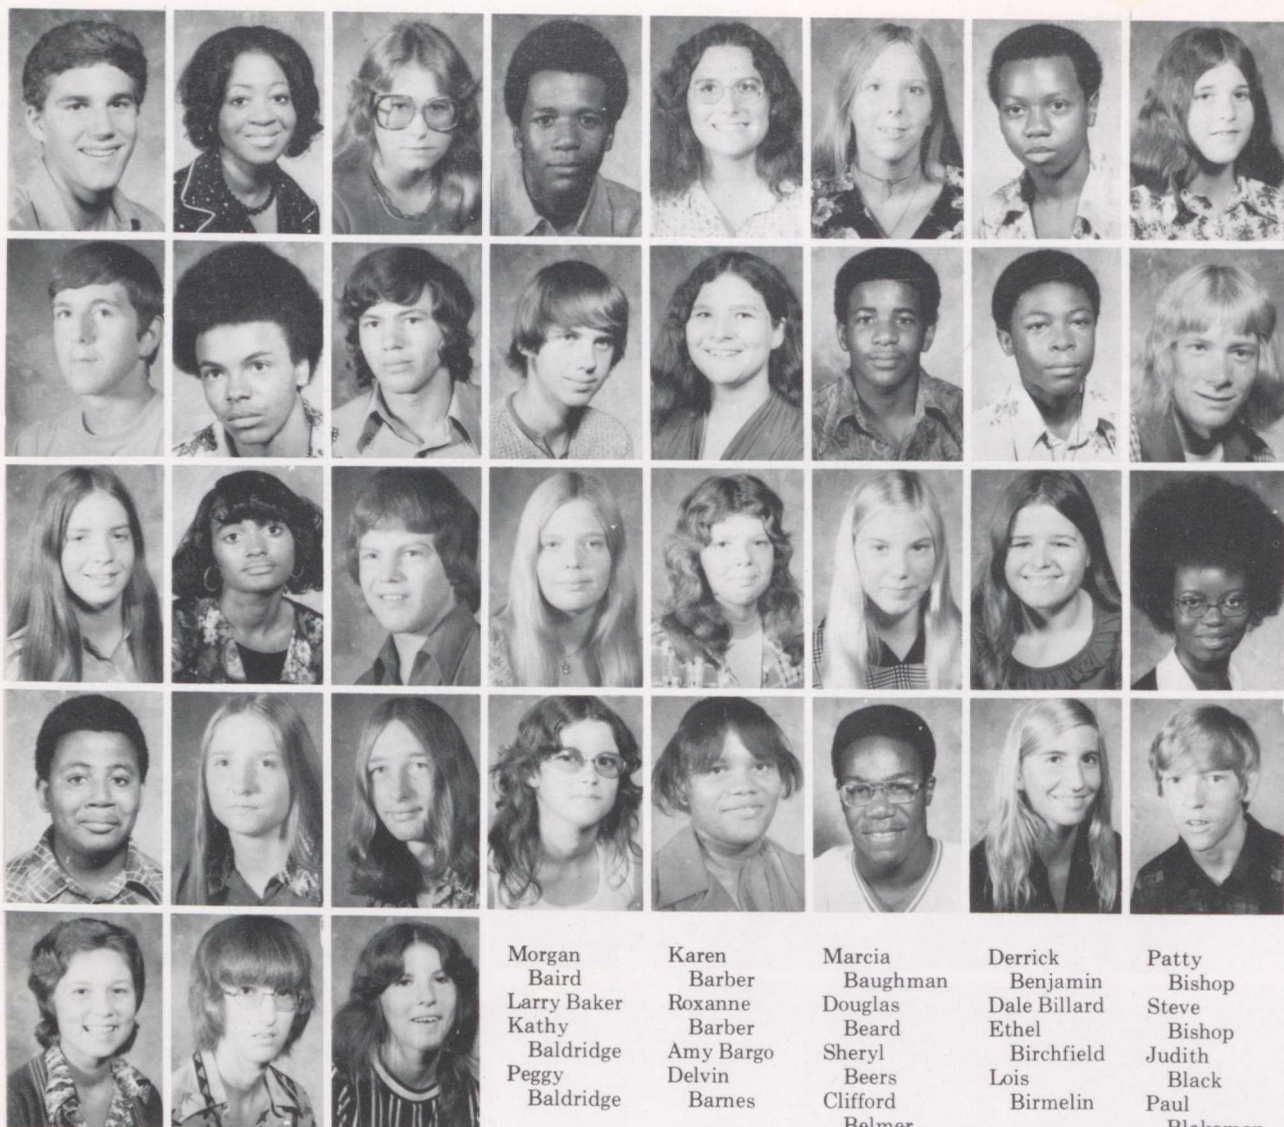

Major projects for the year included a seed sale and various bake sales. Class members are already at work on the decoration ideas and theme for next year's Homecoming to be held on September 20.

1) Class officers are Pam Patton, president, and Lucille Stolle, vice-president. Standing behind them are Margo Davis, treasurer, and Edith Reynolds, secretary. 2) Sophomores practice their speeches before the election assembly. 3) Mrs. Gerrell not only teaches Spanish at Senior High, but advises the sophomore class as well. 4) Mr. Castle, a biology and physiology teacher, advises the class and coaches track. 5) Class Executive Committee members are ROW 1: Cline Ghessouras, Fischer, Harkins. ROW 2: Uhl, Patton, Reynolds, David, Smith, Graber, Mrs. Gerrell, Mr. Castle. ROW 3: Hall, Lindquist, Neumann, Wunderlin, Lusher, Geiger, Lake.

Tygers Shut Out Malabar 19-0

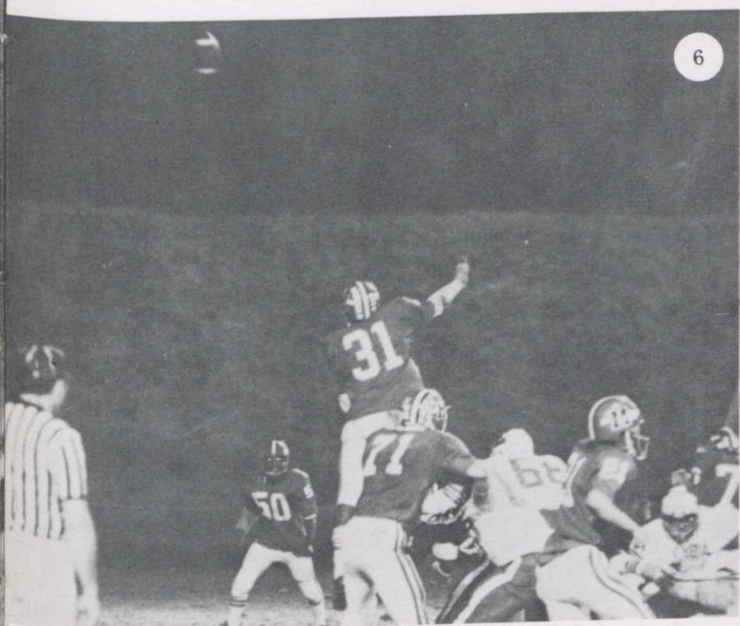

The 1974-75 Tygers, under the direction of the new head coach Dave Pierce, had a disappointing season at 3-6-1. The highlights of the season were beating Lorain Admiral King 21-6 in the homecoming game and crushing crosstown rival Malabar 19-0.

Barry Lawrence received First Team Buckeye Conference honors at quarterback and was also the team's most valuable offensive player. Linebacker Paul Petrella was voted the most valuable defensive player for the Tygers.

ROW 5: Coaches Weaver, Oyer, Campbell, Lanier, Soliday, Pierce, Miefert. 2) Barry Lawrence prepares to pass. 3) "The Jet" heads for open territory. 4) Coach Pierce looks dejected as the opposing team scores. 5) Jackson and Lehnhart get set. 6) Jefferson attempts to block a punt. 7) Petrella gets the tackle. 8) Garverick gets the punt off. 9) Tygers get a long gain.

Tyger Reserves Beat Malabar and Madison

The 1974-75 Junior Varsity football team wound up their season 2-7. Coach John Miefert was pleased with the team's overall performance. Many of the players moved up the varsity squad early in the season. Beating Malabar and Madison were the high spots in the season.

Returning reserves should make up a good nucleus for next season's varsity squad.

Tyger Golfers Complete Long, Fall Season

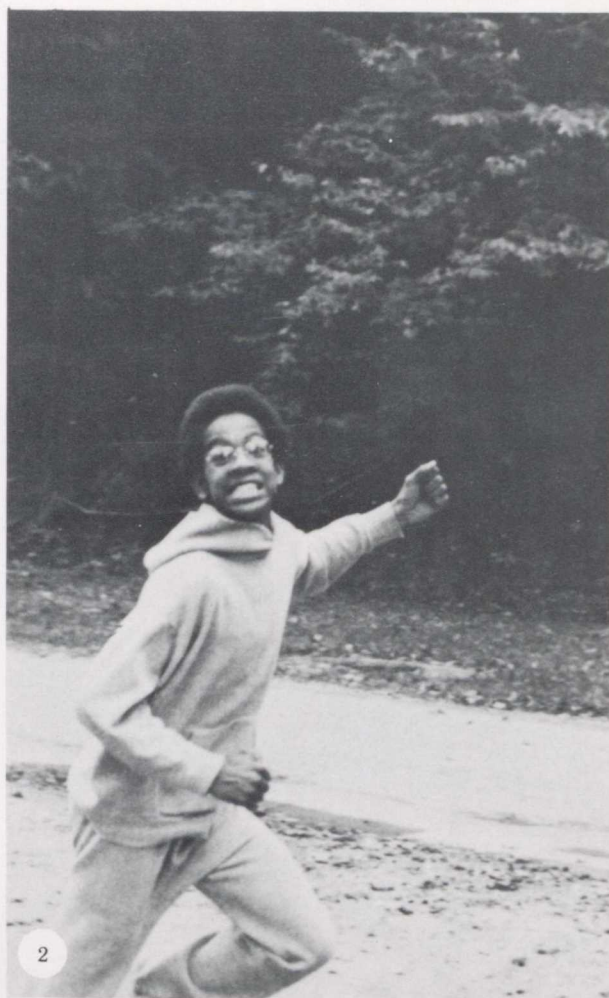

The 1974-75 Tyger golf team has had a most rewarding season this year. Out of 13 grueling matches, the Tyger golfers ended up with eight wins, four losses, and one tie. For the first time, golf became a fall sport, in order to avoid some of the weather problems experienced during the last few seasons.

Awards given at the annual Fall Sports Banquet were Lamar Washington, Captain's award; Flip Wisdom, medalist; and Ken Beeman, low scorer.

1) Careful anticipation accounts for Lamar Washington's good record. 2) A look of determination is obvious, as Ken Beeman swings. 3) Practice swings are a necessary part of Flip Wisdom's technique. 4) Demonstrations by Coach Fairchild give the golfers an extra edge. 5) Frequent trips to the lake are a part of the game. 6) Members of the varsity golf team are: Flip Wisdom, Brad Holtzberry, Ken Beeman, Steve Hammett, and Coach Fairchild. Not pictured is Lamar Washington. 7) Soil flies as Steve Hammett demonstrates his powerful swing. 8) Rough spots don't seem to get in Brad Holtzberry's way.

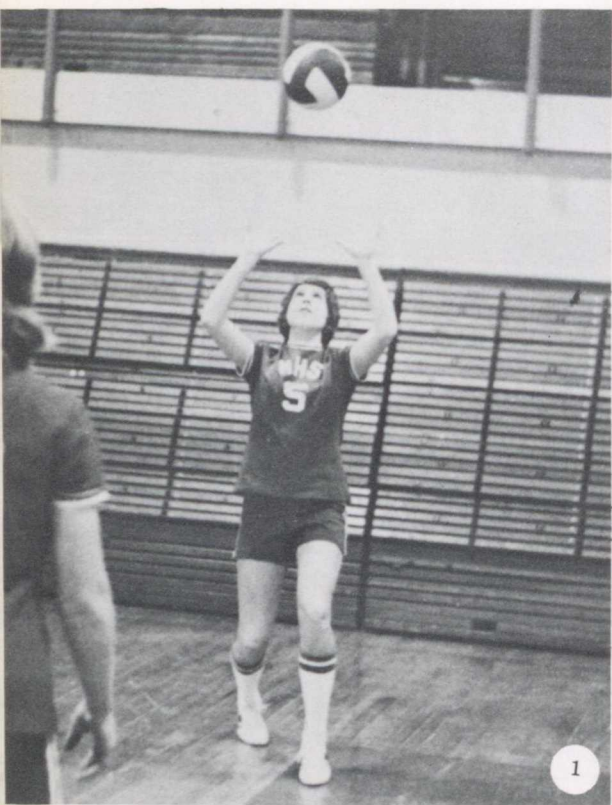

Cross Country Team Winds Up 3-3

Coach Doug Castle was exceptionally pleased with the 1974 Cross Country team. As a whole, they improved tremendously during the season. There were seven runners who broke eleven minutes by the end of the season. Bill Harkins and Nate Robinson received the most improved award. Gary Hightower was voted the team's most valuable player, while Harkins was the honorary captain.

1) Michelle Brumm sets up a spike for Andra Webb.

Tyger Girls Have Successful Tennis Season

The girls' tennis team had a very successful year, ending with a 9-2 record. The honorary captain was Brenda Speigle, while the most points award went to Jeanne Them and Linda Lehnhart. The team was coached by Mrs. Laura Evilsizor.

1) Members of the tennis team are ROW 1: Letizia, Stahlheber, Buchanan, Hughes. ROW 2: Clifford, Wolff, Mrs. Evilsizor, Montgomery, Lehnhart, Tehn, Smith, Speigle. 2) Nancy Wolff keeps a steady eye on the ball. 3) Waiting for the serve is Diane Smith. 4) Senior Allison Stahlheber lobs the ball over the net. 5) Doubles team, Lori Hughes and Jenni Montgomery, play a tough game.

Volleyball Team Has Losing Season

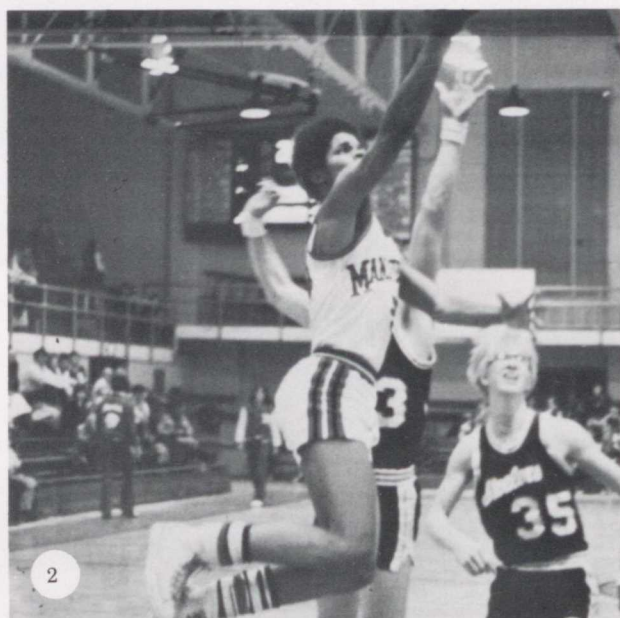

Girls' varsity volleyball had a disappointing season this year. Their final record was 0-7. In tournament games the Tygers lost to Lexington by just three points.

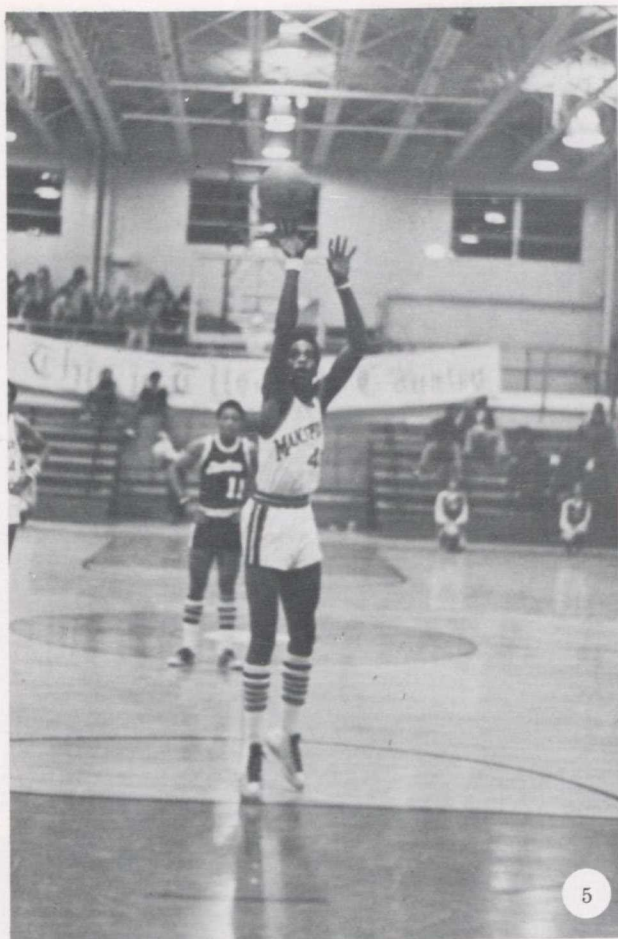

This year's most valuable player was Andra Webb. She also had the most total points of the season. The team was coached by Miss Joan Rice.

Tyger Cagers Have Disappointing Season

The 1974-75 Tyger basketball team dribbled their way to a disappointing 5-14 season. Lack of experience and loss of members slowed the team down. The fighting Tygers did, however, manage to defeat cross town rivals Malabar and Madison. The starting five consisted of Mark Fisher, Melvin Swope, Ed Williams, Tyrone Matthews, and Eric Jefferson. Coach Jim Goode was in his first season as head varsity coach, with Coach Fairchild as his assistant.

Special awards given at the annual winter sports banquet were to Ty Matthews, best field goal shooting and most valuable player; Ed Williams, most assists and best foul shooting; and Cliff Belmer, most rebounds and most efficient.

Reserves Battle to 8-10 Season

Under the direction of new coach Ron Hetler, the Tyger reserves wound up at 8-10. Coach Hetler was pleased with the output of the players, saying that they gained valuable experience. Don Gross and Henry Washington were moved to the varsity squad midway through the season. Gross was leading scorer, edging out Washington. Brady Frye led the team in assists, while Brad Holtsberry pulled down the most rebounds.

1) Mike Brumm shoots the rock. 2) Brady Frye stretches for the shot. 3) Reserve squad members are ROW 1: Scarbury, Washington, Frye, Scherer, Stevens. ROW 2: Holtsberry, Gross, Harper, Brumm, Simmering. 4) Tygers set up a play. 5) Holtsberry puts in a layup. 6) Brady Frye passes the ball. 7) Henry Washington shows good form.

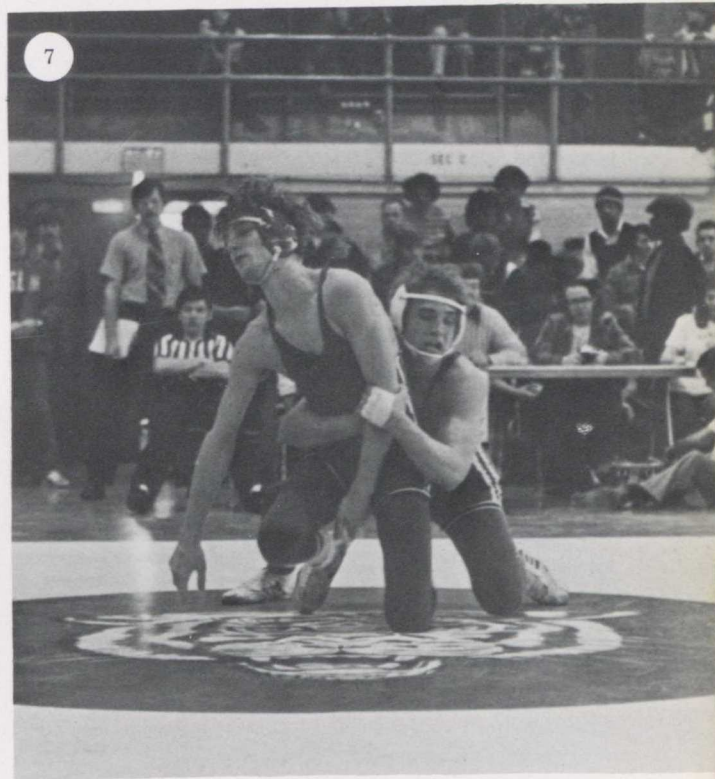

Tygers Win Third Straight J.C. Gorman

Tournament

The Tiger grapplers won their third consecutive J.C. Gorman championship this year. Their dual meet record was 7-1, along with seconds in the Buckeye Conference and sectional tournaments. Paul Petrella captured a third at the state meet and was also the team's most valuable wrestler. Lloyd Tate got the award for the most pins, while John Selmon and Ed Favors received outstanding sophomore and junior awards, respectively. Lloyd Tate and Paul Petrella were voted the team's captains.

Ginny Ott was elected J.C. Gorman queen by the student body. Members of her court were Brenda Bartlett, Nina McCruter, Amy Ruggles, and Sharon Sanderfer. The girls presided over the tournament and awarded trophies.

1) Tiger wrestlers are ROW 1: J. Selmon, Lee, Favors, Brownlee, Darson, Ray, Hane. ROW 2: Coach Campbell, Dudley, R. Owens, D. Owens, Williams, Stuht, S. Owens, Schaffer, Kiser, Mason, Adley, Coach Flanagan. ROW 3: B. Selmon, Ward, Petrella, Harkins, Hightower, Knackstedt, Tate. 2) Buckeye Conference champ Paul Petrella also took third in the state. 3) Gary Hightower wrestles rival Don Cho of Malabar. 4) The J.C. Gorman queen and her court watch the action on the mats. 5) Hightower holds down opponent from Ashland. 6) Bill Harkins punishes his opponent from Crestview. 7) Harkins looks for an escape.

Girls Participate in Basketball, Track

Two other girls' sports which proved popular this year were basketball and track. The basketball team had a losing season, but the girls had a good time and played competitively. Awards went to Andra Webb, most points; Cassandra Chatman, most improved; and Jeannie Them, most valuable player. One game was played as a paid assembly for students.

Highlight of the track season was beating Madison 92-18. Track awards went to Jackie Mitchell, most valuable in field events, and Joanne Canada, most valuable runner.

This year a new award was established — the "Woman Sports Athlete of the Year". It was for an outstanding woman athlete who participated actively in sports, ranked high scholastically, and showed qualities of good leadership. Jeannie Them was chosen for this honor.

- 1) Girls jump to get the tip.
- 2) Regina Render dribbles down the floor and looks for an opening.
- 3) Girls' basketball team members get together for a group shot.
- 4) Anne Hilliard and Miss Griffin watch as runners round the bend.
- 5) A Senior High broad jumper heads for the sawdust.
- 6) Marie Duellman gets the edge on her Shelby competitor.

Tyger Baseball Team Ends Season at 10-15

The Tyger baseball team ended its season at 10-15. Mike Johnson was the leading pitcher with an Earned Run Average of 1.69. The leading hitter was Mark Fisher with a batting average of .404; he was also voted the most improved player for the year. Rick Conard received the defensive award and was voted the team's most valuable player. Captain of the 1975 team was Mike Johnson.

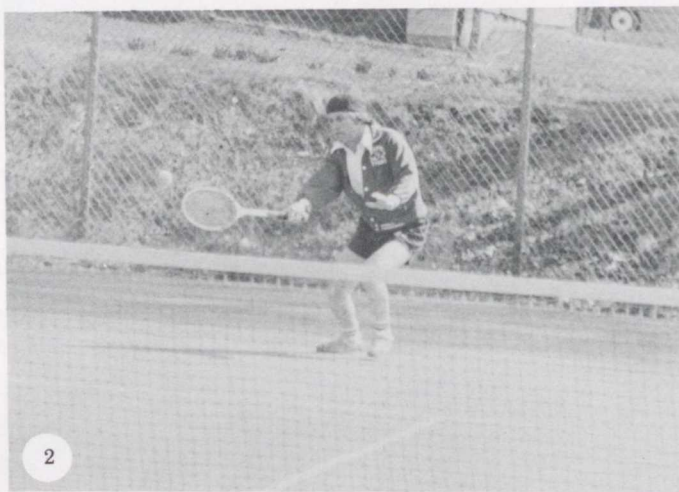

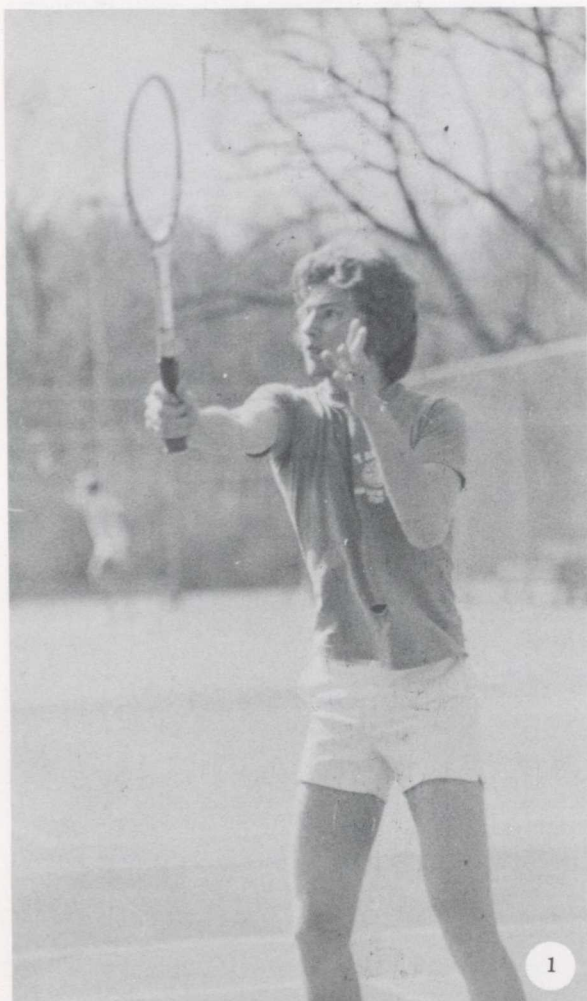

1) Coach Dressler shows concern for the Tiger team. 2) After a good try at a base hit, Mike Johnson returns to the dugout. 3) With the runner attempting a steal, first baseman Greg Knackstedt anxiously awaits the pickoff throw from the pitcher. 4) Pitcher Marv Brown awaits a single before he throws his next pitch. 5) Senior Bob Lehnhart watches attentively despite the cold weather. 6) Baseball team members are ROW 1: Black, Conard, Brown, R. Johnson, M. Johnson. ROW 2: Gassaway, Rose, Lehnhart, Fisher, Brumm, Cushing, Knackstedt. 7) A hefty swing from Mark Fisher results in a base hit. 8) A fast ball has Junior Rose swinging at air.

Tyger Netters Improve

The tennis team improved from a winless season last year to 5-12 record this year. Colin Paul played an outstanding game throughout the year and was voted the captain and given the most valuable player award. Nick Ghessouras, a sophomore, received the award for scoring the most points. Junior Don Gross was the Tyger's most improved tennis player for 1975.

1) Colin Paul backhands the ball. 2) George Matthews stoops to make the shot. 3) Steve Meckling shows his form. 4) Bruce Holmes jumps high for the ball. 5) Claude Jackson attempts to hit the ball. 6) Concentration is shown on Don Gross' face. 7) Tyger tennis players are ROW 1: Gross, Paul, Beeman. ROW 2: Meckling, Ghessouras, Matthews (Photo by Charles Zirkle, News-Journal).

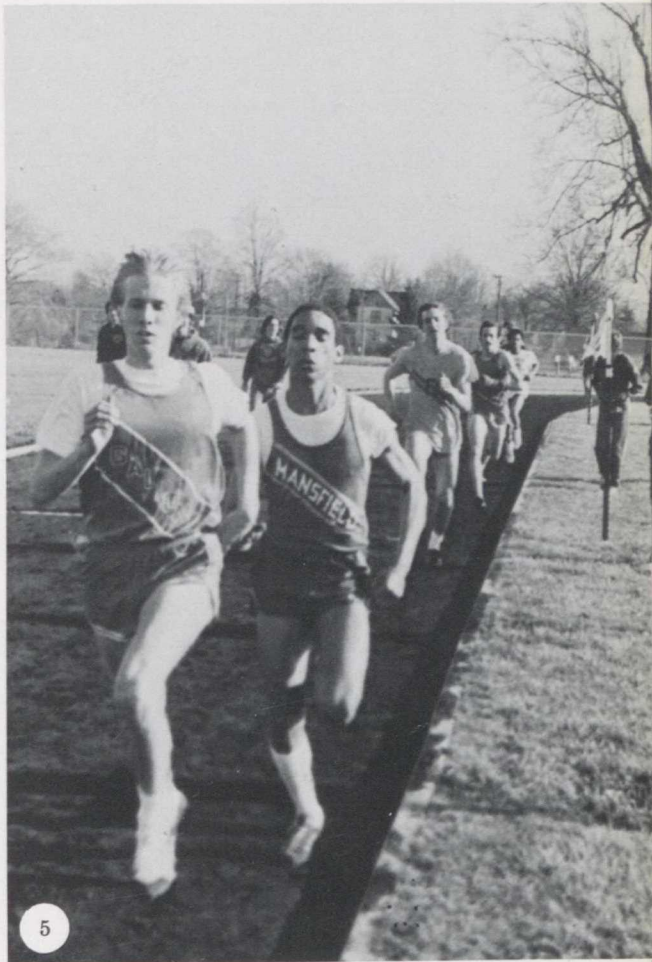

Tyger Trackmen Complete Season With 6-3 Record

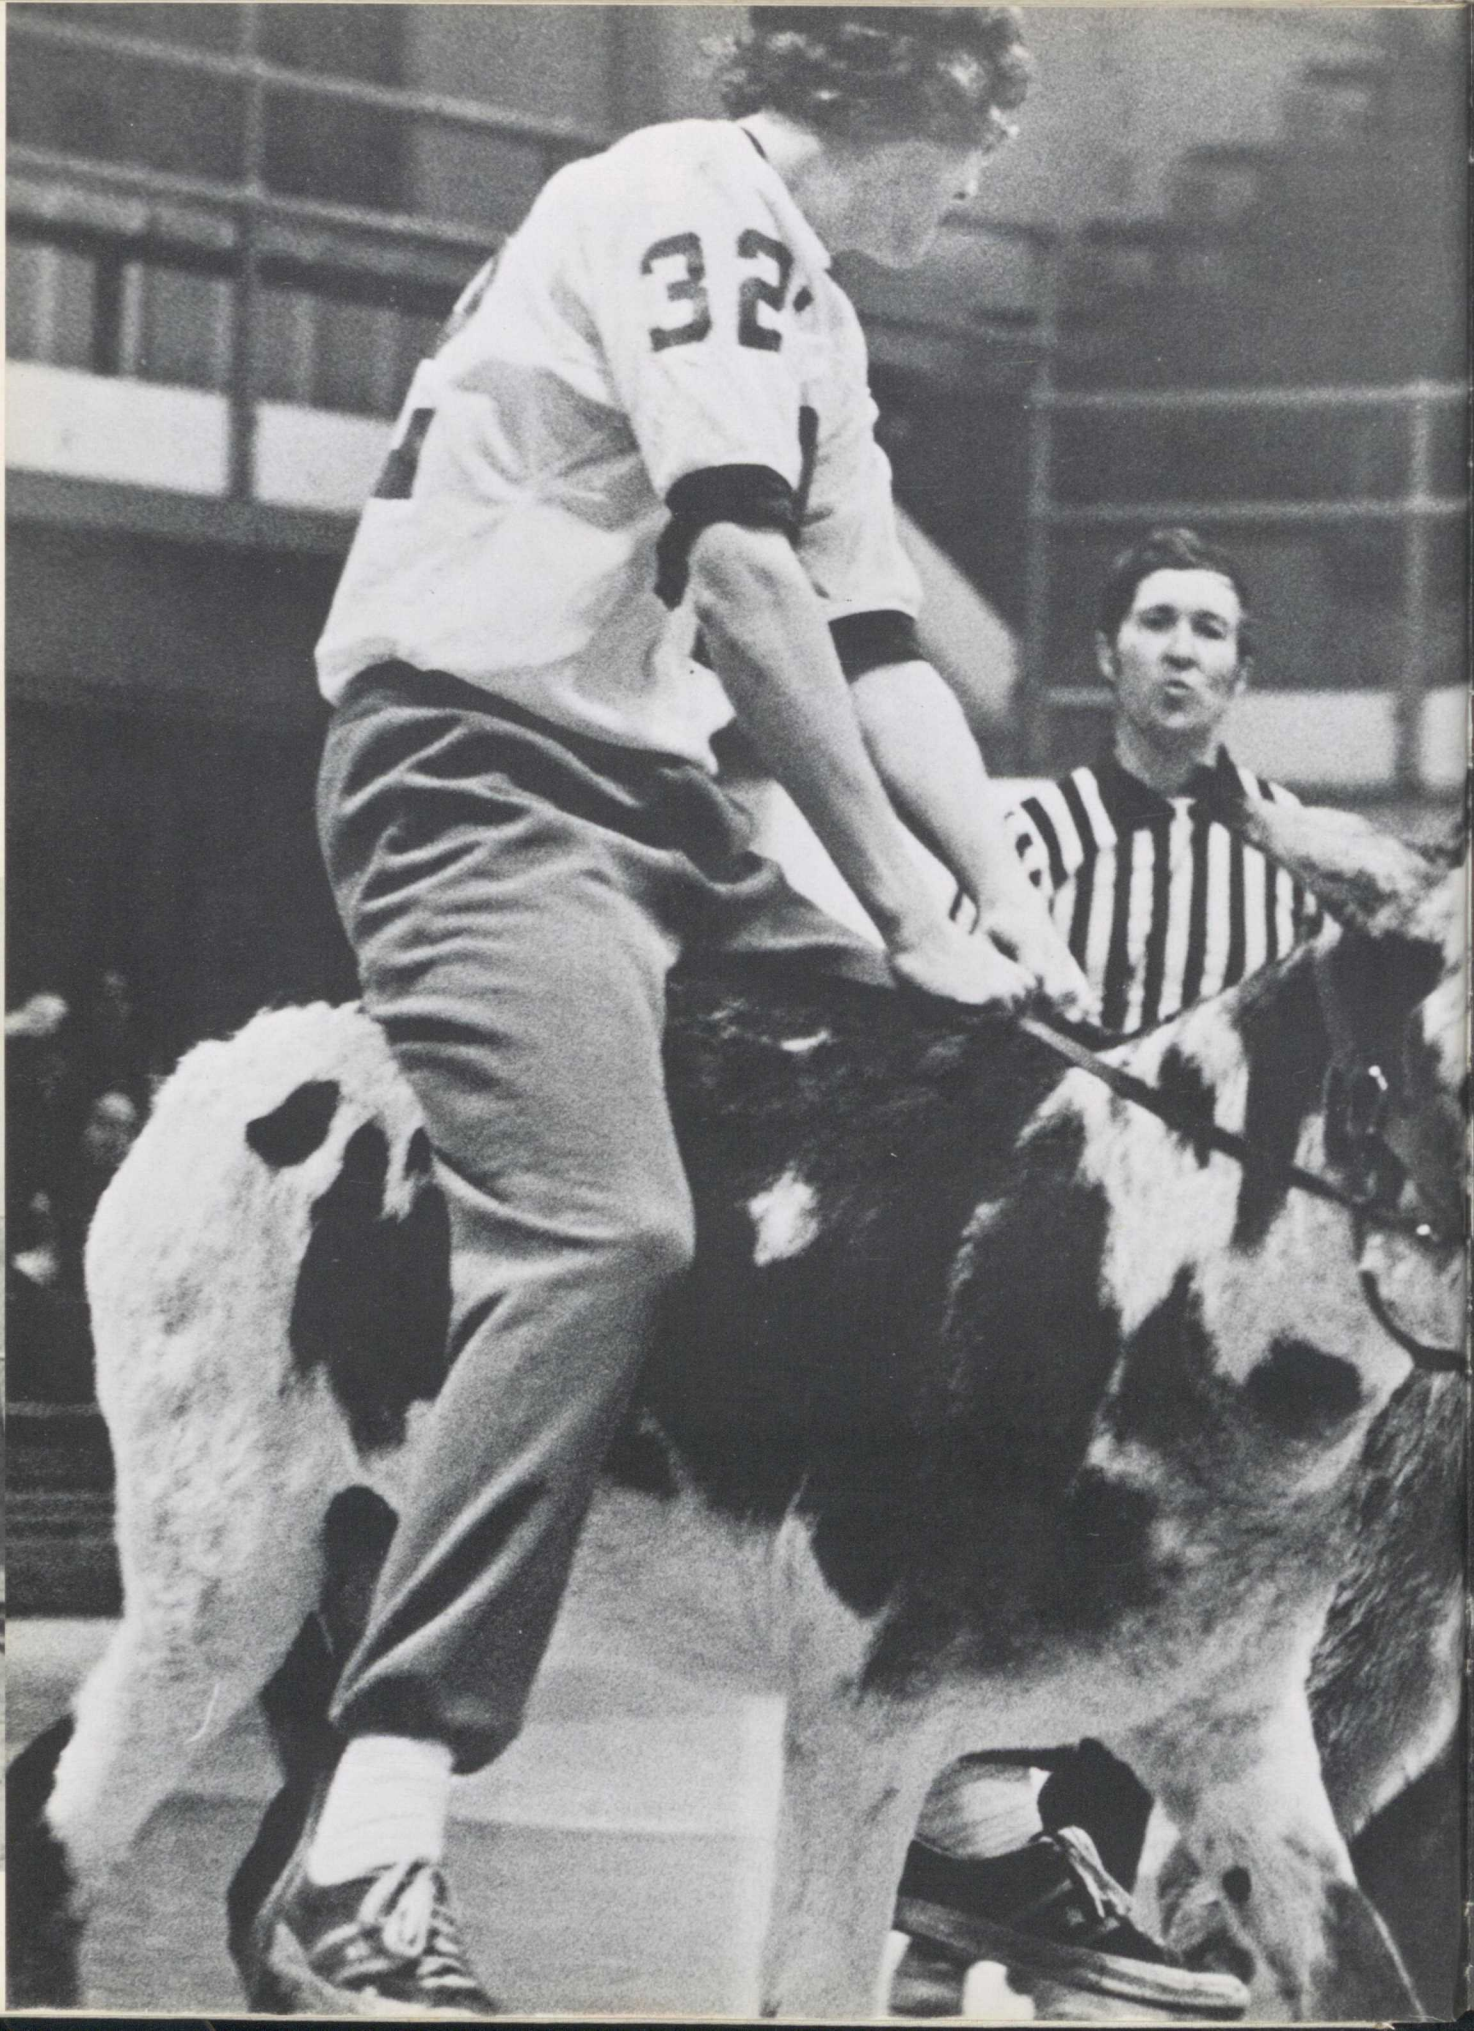

Coach Doug Castle was pleased with this year's track team's overall performance but was disappointed that no one qualified for the state meet. The Tygers placed second in the Buckeye Conference meet, which is the best ever for Senior High.

Vince Hafford was voted the team's most valuable player, showing good performances in the 100 and 200 yard dashes and the 880 yard relay team. Stan Tillman received the outstanding trackman award, while the outstanding field award went to Lamar Washington. Most improved was Mike Hood, and Tom Taylor was voted captain.

1) Brian Garverick grunts for that extra distance. 2) Bruce Baehrens lines up for his race. 3) First across the finish line is Mike Hood. 4) Larry Bradley soars to a third in the pole vault event. 5) Waymond Mapp strides up behind his opponent. 6) Tyger trackmen are ROW 1: Glenn, Taylor, Hafford, Mapp, Hightower. ROW 2: Hood, Petrella, Guzzo, Robinson, Bradley. ROW 3: Favors, Kinnon, Harkins, Garverick, Ward, Harper, Mabry, Jones.

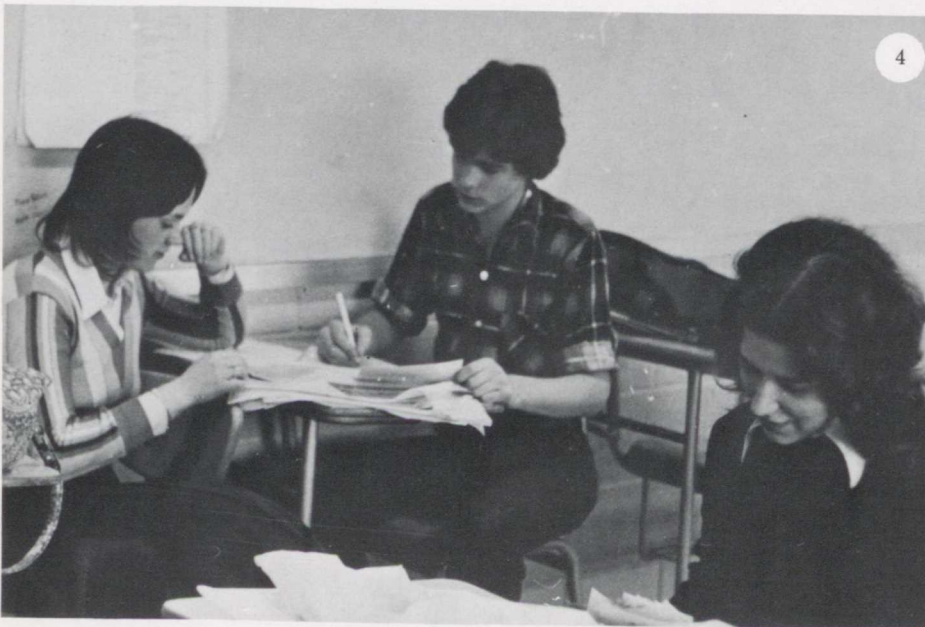

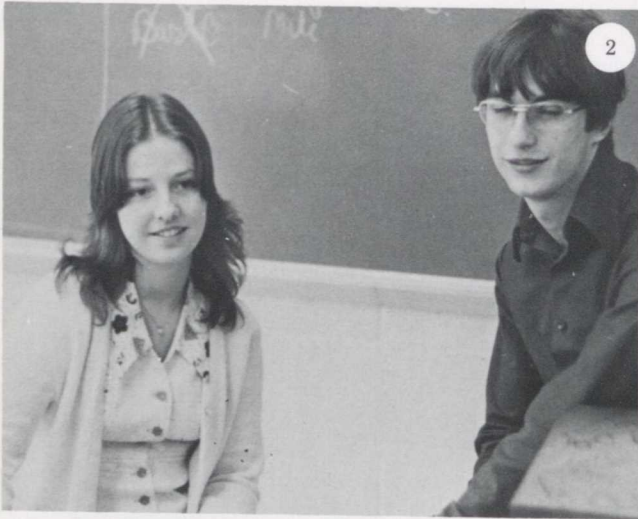

ACTIVITIES

Students Work Hard to Present Manhigan

The Manhigan underwent a slight change in size this year in order to keep the price to students the same as last year. All activities, however, were given the same coverage, so that nothing was lost in the change. Once again it was decided to continue on the fall delivery schedule so that all spring activities could be included in the book.

The editorial staff was headed by Jeff Hoffer and advised by Mr. David Gross. Serving as business advisor was Mr. Wayne Au with Debbie Risner as business manager.

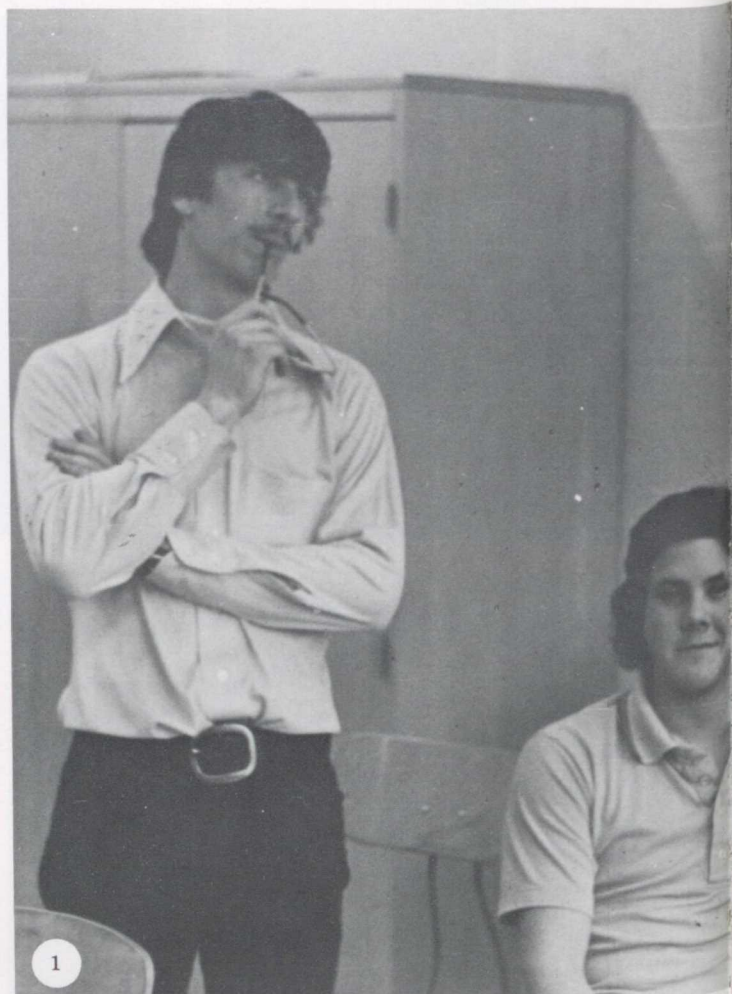

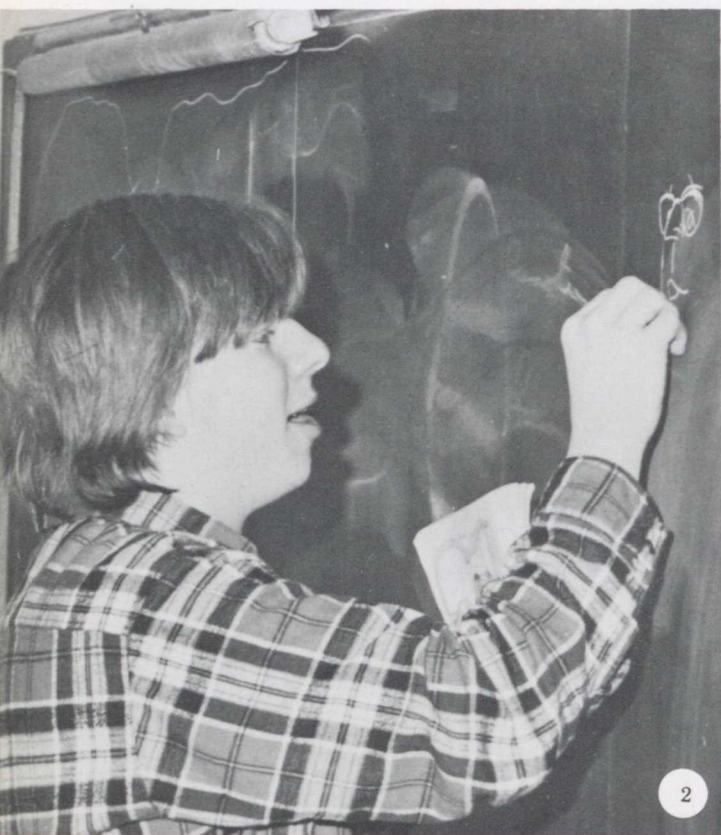

1) Members of the editorial staff get together for a formal picture. 2) Paula Finical and Larry Sqrow were in charge of faculty pictures. 3) Typist Cynthia Jones works on some copy. 4) Barb Clark, Scott Buker, and Kathy Wymer work hard to get the sports section completed. 5) Nancy Wolff, Julie Clay, Jim Weber, and Linda Kiley check over a layout for the activities section. 6) Dave Dotson, the photographer, gets into a picture for a change. 7) Seniors staff members are Cassandra Chatman, Cheryl Webb, and Debbie Risner. 8) In charge of the underclassmen section are Brenda Hamblin, Anita Allen, and Cindy Jones. 9) Mr. Gross, Manhigan advisor, watches editor Jeff Hoffer work on the opening section.

Hyphonerian Staff Publishes Nine Issues

This year's Hyphonerian, with Mr. Robinson as advisor, kept the school informed by putting out a total of nine publications. A special April Fool's Day edition caused some concern among students who learned that all sports were to be dropped at Senior High, and the prom would be held in the gym. Bill Jackson served as Editor-in-Chief, and Dave Dotson took care of the photography.

The business staff had double responsibilities, since they took care of both the Manhigan and Hyphonerian. They got ads from area businessmen for both publications, took orders for Manhigans, and distributed papers and yearbooks on their various publication days. Mr. Au served as advisor to the business staff, while Debbie Risner acted as manager, and Larry Sqrow assistant manager.

1) Editorial writer Tom Carto ponders a question as editor Bill Jackson looks on. 2) Bob Perman, art editor, demonstrates his expert character sketching. 3) Jeff Schinsky, features reporter, works with the editor of that staff, Mary McGraw. 4) Hyphonerian staff members include ROW 1: Schinsky, Petrella, McGraw, Smith, Cahill, Carto. ROW 2: Sinnett, Crider, Noe, Armstrong, Pender, Lehnhart, Jackson. ROW 3: Perman. 5) News staff editor Ron Smith (front) is surrounded by reporters Margaret Noe, Kathy Sinnett, Cindy Armstrong, and Bob Crider. 6) The sports section includes Paul Petrella, Regina Pender, Matt Cahill (editor), and Bob Lehnhart. 7) Business staff members include ROW 1: Wolff, Risner, Geiger, Letizia, Lehman, Finical, Sqrow, Carto. ROW 2: Mr. Au, Smith, Weber, Spencer, VanRiper, Bartlett, Avery, Bessemer, Perman.

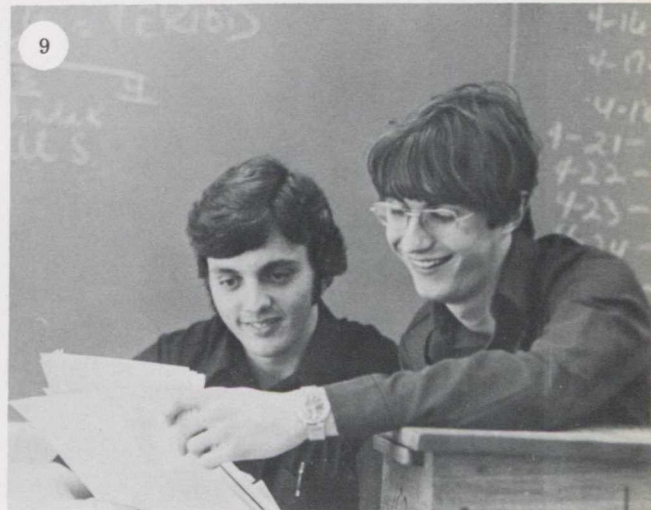

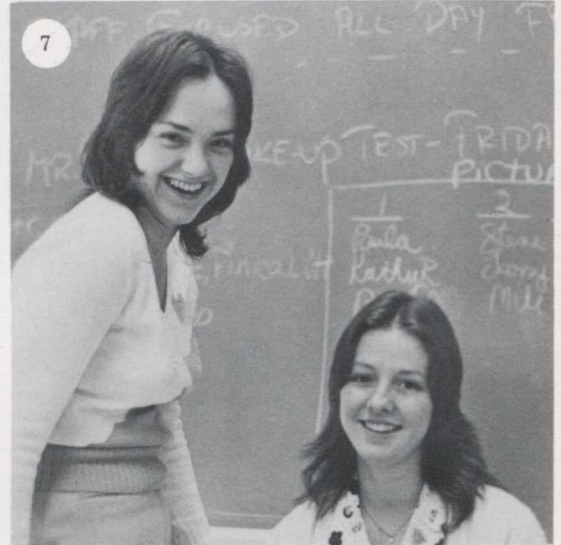

1) Mr. Richard Cole has spent five years with the Spectrum staff.
 2) Typist Barb White checks over the files to see who has paid.
 3) Layout section included Carla Barnes, Kathy Elkins, and Amy Clancy.
 4) Allison Stahlheber and Linda Kiley took care of publicity.
 5) Spectrum staff members pose for a group shot.
 6) Editor Pam Peters and her assistant Sherry Holt check over some of the selections.
 7) Barb Clark and Paula Finical were circulation managers.
 8) Cassandra Hood, Ginny Ott, and Betsy Warga were in charge of art for this year's magazine.
 9) Assistant business manager Steve Fraley and business manager Larry Sqrow look over some layouts.

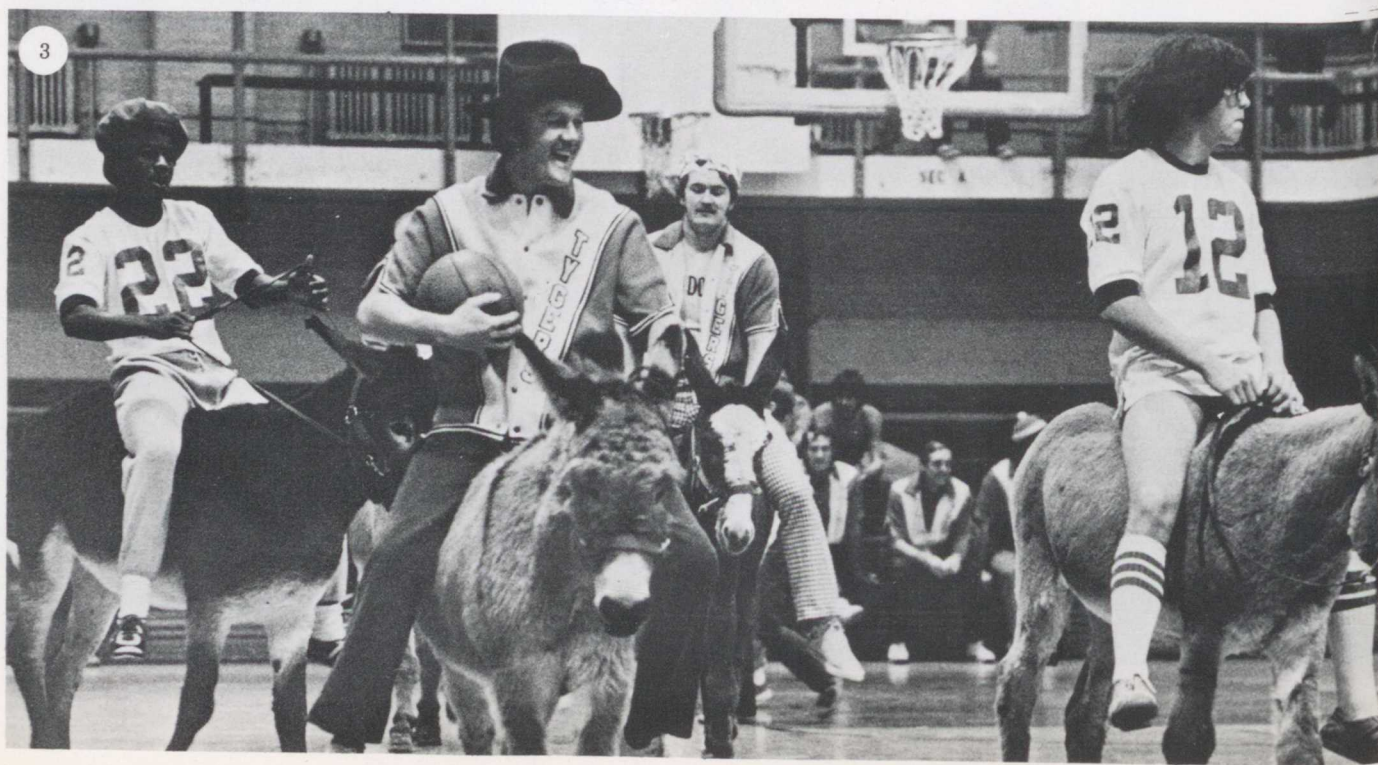

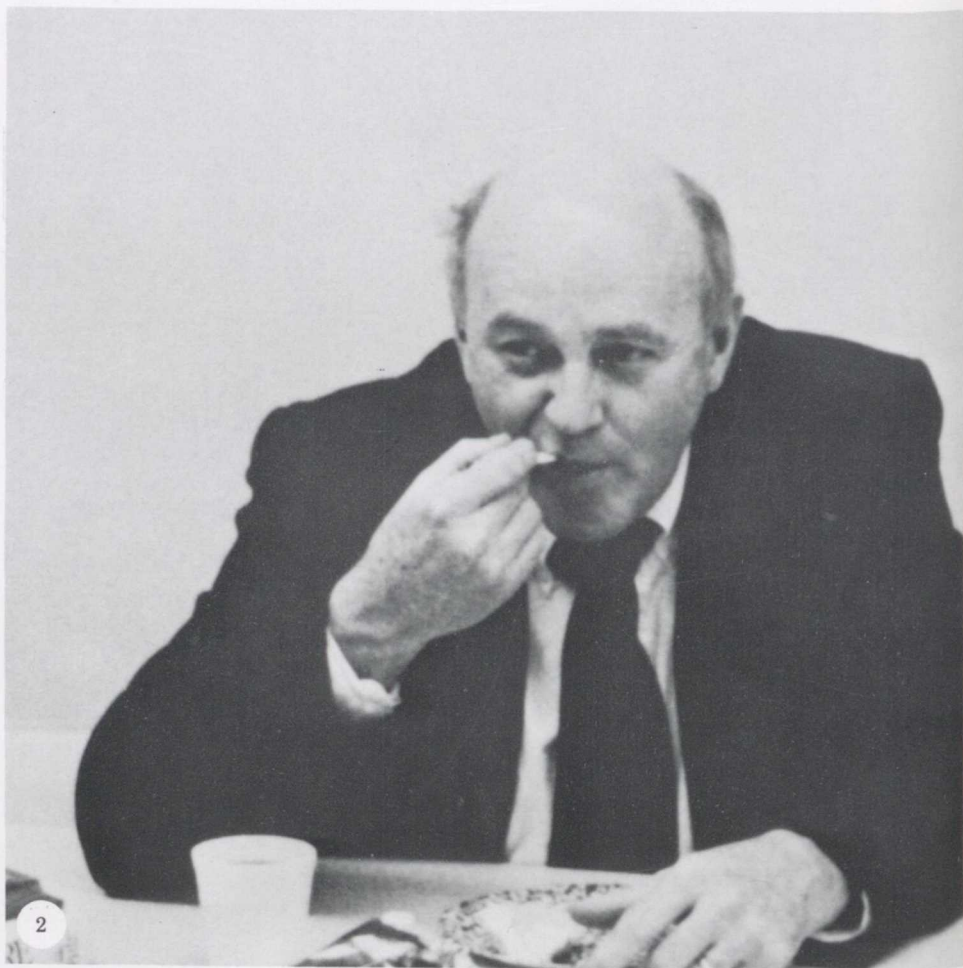

Spectrum Enjoys Successful Year

This year's Spectrum, MHS literary magazine, enjoyed a successful business year. In its fifth year of publication, Spectrum was sold to 471 people at Senior High and around the school system.

The highlight of the year was the staff trip to Greenup, Kentucky, to personally present a copy of the magazine to author Jesse Stuart. The staff toured his home and spent an afternoon talking with him, and then went on to Huntington, West Virginia, to spend the night.

1) President Ed Williams officiates over sophomore class elections. 2) Mr. Powell enjoys a piece of cake at his going away party. 3) Tony Shoulders chases Coach Fairchild, while Coach Soliday and Bob Lehnhart try to maneuver their donkeys. 4) Student Council members are ROW 1: Cahill, Darson, Smith, Burton, Howell, Bailey. ROW 2: Hillary, Davis, Radabaugh, Baker, Correll, Couley, Ramirez, Ward, Ferguson, Hightower, Matthews, Johnson. ROW 3: Carroll, Neal, Breedlove, Kazias, Weber, Lawrence, Taylor, Williams, Harper. 5) Other members are ROW 1: Bargo, Hetinger, Sutherland, Peters, Miller, Crawford, Clay, Haag, Uhl. ROW 2: Brownlee, Poth, Brown, Davis, Holt, Fletcher, Jackson, Plaster, Ruggles, Stuht, Harkins, Beeman. ROW 3: Finlayson, Swope, Smith, Feagin, Avery, Davis, Robinson, Shoulders, Gross, Adamescu. 6) This year's fifties day participants pose in their costumes. 7) Joe Dillon, Deb Mutchler, and Cindy Armstrong lend a hand to the annual Christmas basket drive.

Student Council Promotes School Interest

This year's Student Council made a successful attempt at promoting school interest. Among the many projects sponsored by the group were the donkey basketball game between students and faculty, fifties day, Christmas baskets, slave days for both boys and girls, a going away party for Mr. Powell. There were also student exchanges with Malabar, Galion, Ontario, Lexington, and various other area schools.

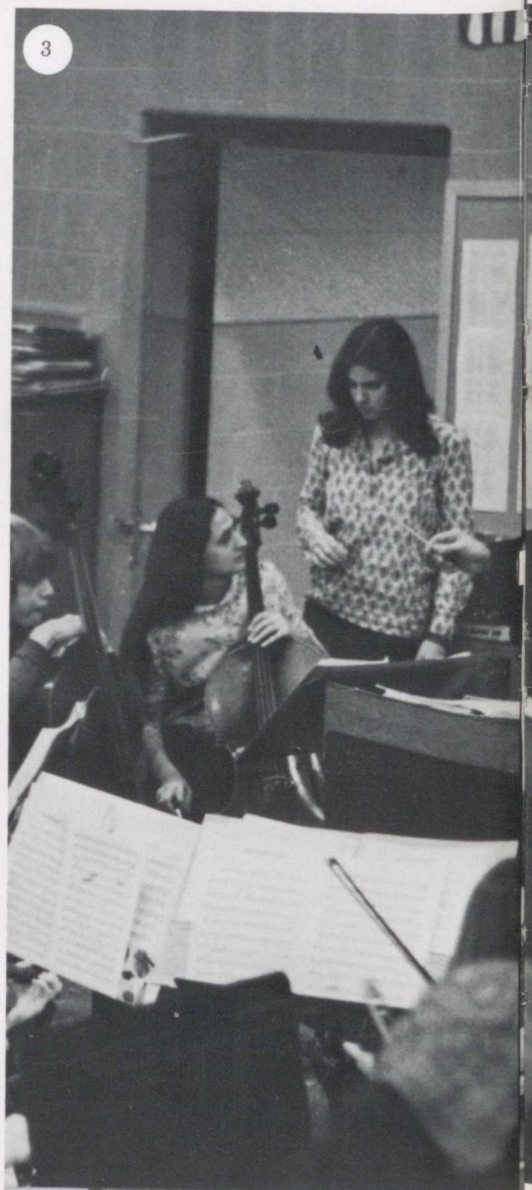

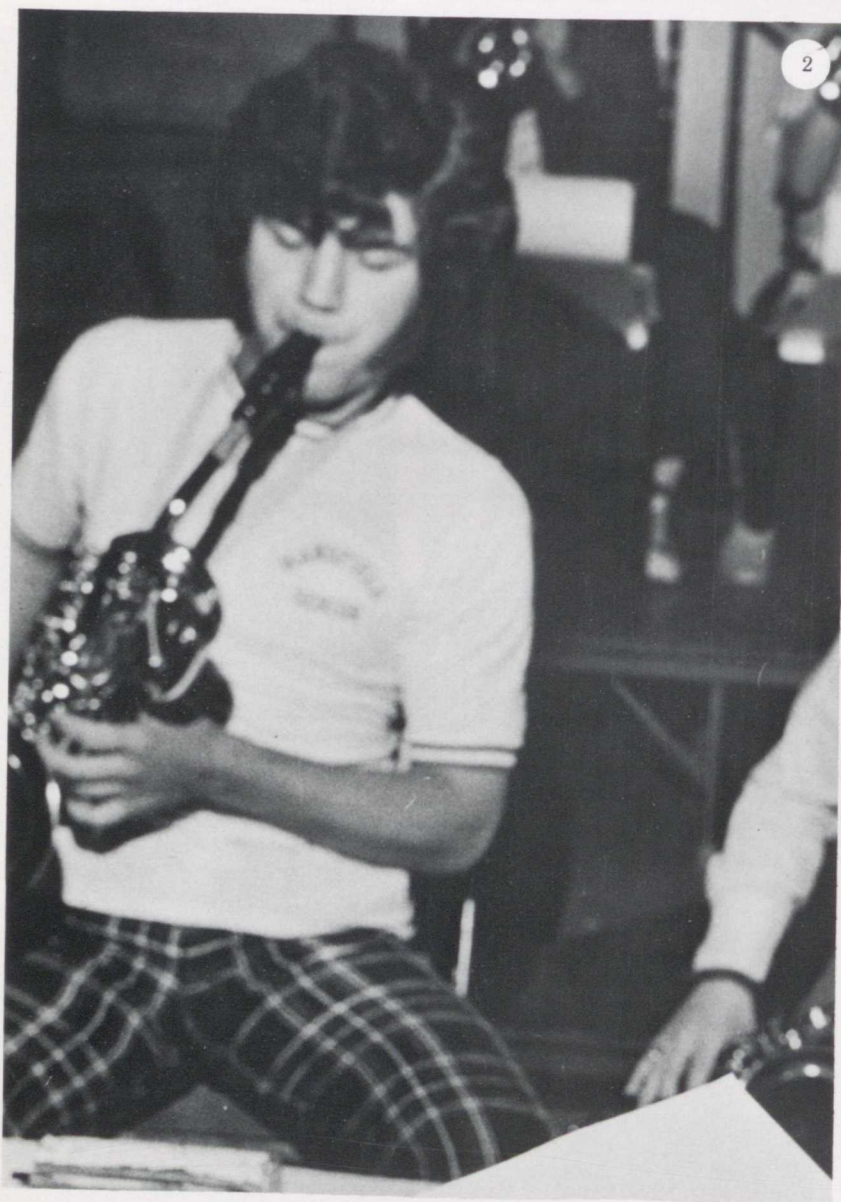

Officers for '74-'75 were Ed Williams, president; Santana Ramirez, vice-president; Jim Weber, treasurer; and Cathy Taylor, secretary. Mr. Goode served as advisor

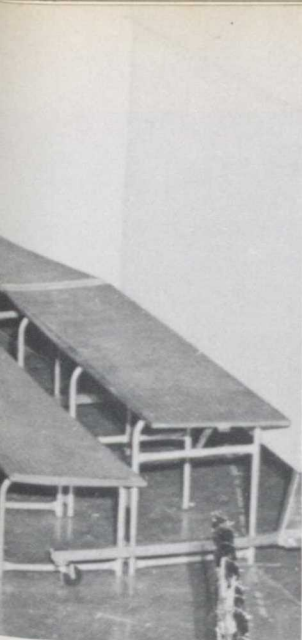

Stage Band, Orchestra Provide Quality Entertainment

The MHS orchestra enjoyed another successful year. Under the direction of Mr. Hall, orchestra members traveled to Fremont to participate in the Buckeye Festival. They also earned to superior at state contest

The stage band put in a busy year, playing at many functions both here and in the community. They performed with other divisions of the Music Department at the annual Christmas program and provided the music for Varsity Varieties. Special assembly programs were provided for the junior highs and several elementary schools in the system. In the community the stage band played for the Miss Mansfield Pageant and spent many weekends playing for the proms of area schools.

Concert Choir Works to Maintain High Standing

This year's choir and girls' glee club worked hard to maintain their outstanding reputation. Members performed at Bowling Green University, the three junior highs in Mansfield, and at Lorain Admiral King, and were active in district and state contests as well. They performed for the Mansfield public at two concerts at Christmas and in the spring here at school, and at the Malabar Spring Festival.

To raise money this year, choir members staged two paid assemblies where they displayed their talents for fellow students and teachers.

Cindy Weirich Crowned Queen

Homecoming was one of the biggest events for the Junior Class this year. The assembly was held on the morning of October 12 to the theme "You Are the Sunshine of My Life". After the queen, Cindy Weirich, and her court were escorted to their seats, Mr. Merle Moore spoke about his experiences as a Tiger football player some years ago. Cindy was crowned by the 1973 Homecoming Queen, Jackie Jones, who was escorted by Tom Taylor.

That night the Tigers played a winning game against Lorain Admiral King. After the game a dance was held in Pete Henry Gym to the sounds of Tashtego.

The Mansfield Senior High Drama Department presented as their fall play "The Front Page" by Hatch and MacArthur. Mr. Thomas Brown, drama and speech teacher, directed the three act comedy-drama. The play dealt with newspapermen in early 1900 Chicago. It was presented on two evenings, and although audience attendance was poor, Mr. Brown felt the play was a dramatic success.

A new one thousand dollar lighting system, consisting of twelve instruments, was used for this play. The money for the new equipment was donated by Tyger Moms and various other contributions.

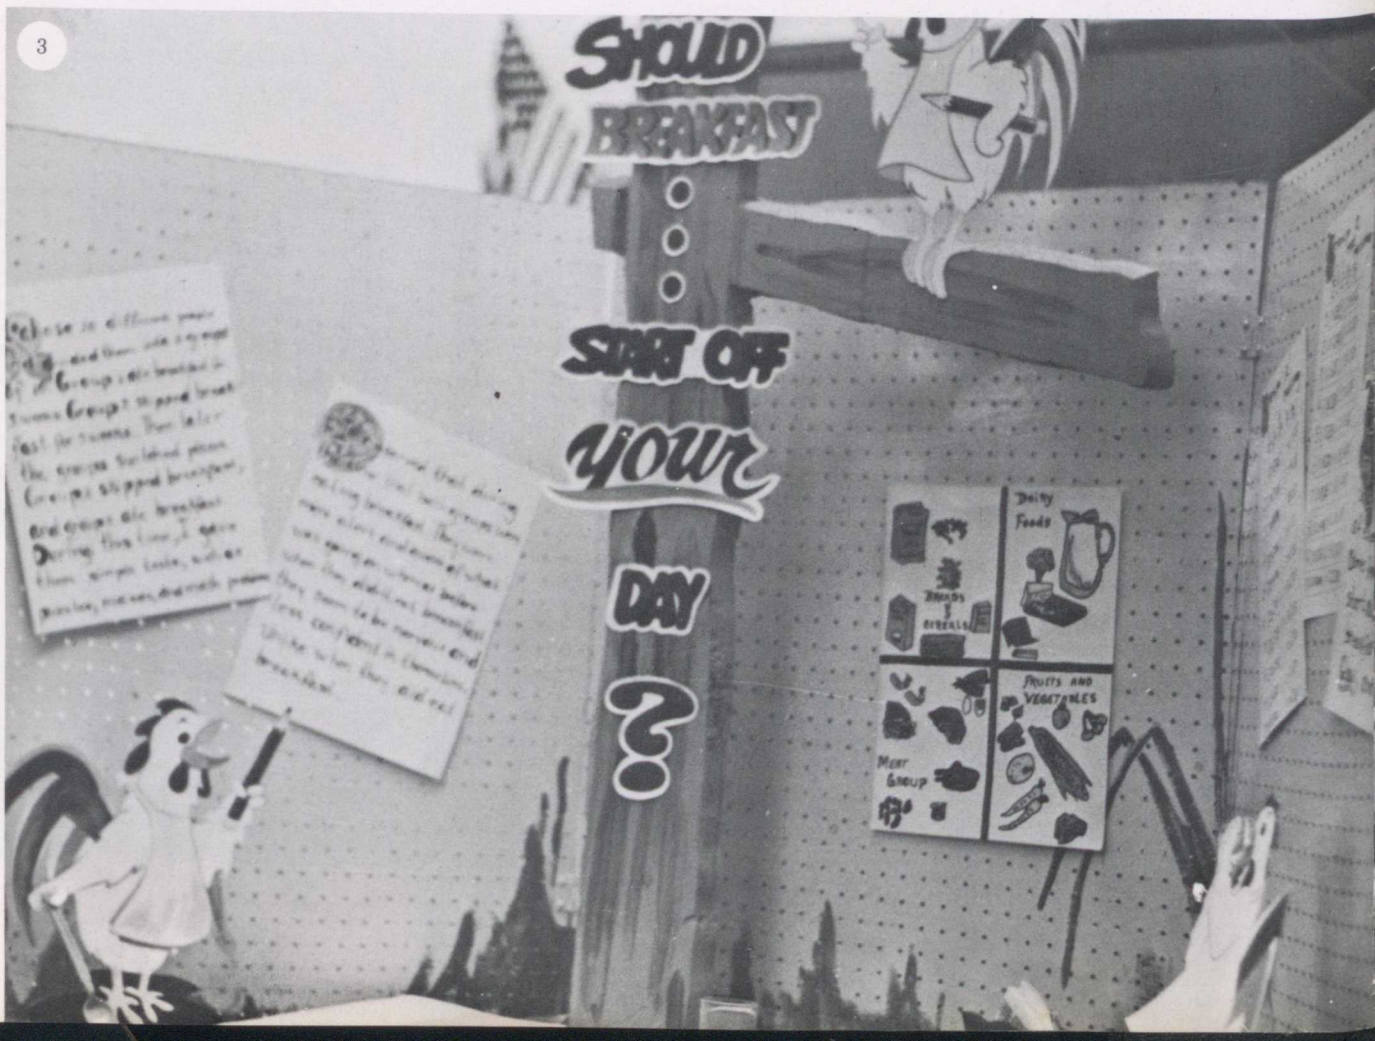

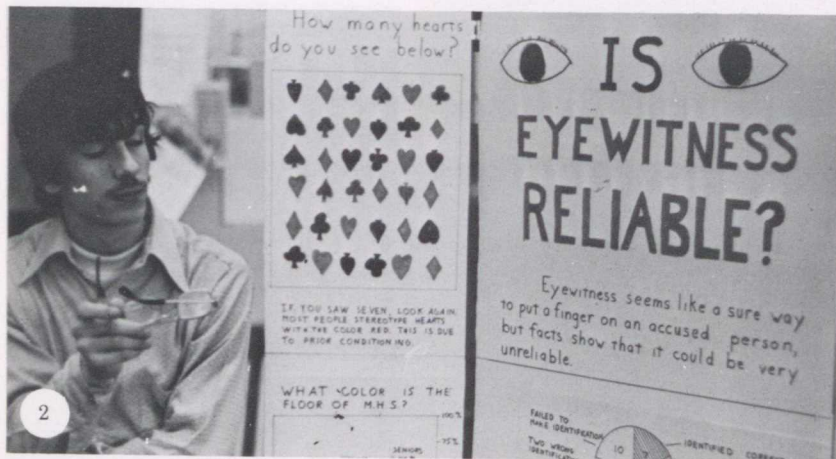

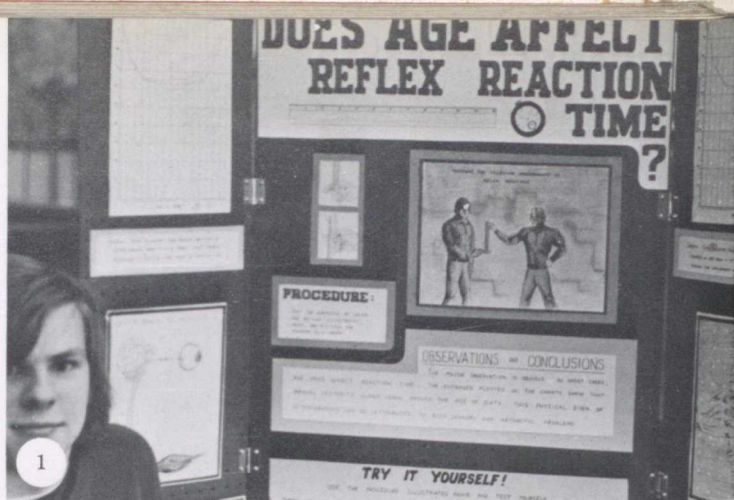

1) Wendy Geiger poses a question to Jim Weber. 2) Sometimes brute force is necessary, as Hildy (Matt Cahill) demonstrates on the convict (Greg Tabor). 3) Spectators Eric Ferguson, Jay Finlayson, and Jim Weber watch as Rick Keith proves a point to Kevin Arthur. 4) Officer Woodenshoes (Cliff Franklin) and Murphy (Mike Nadolsky) try to get Molly Molloy (Julie Clay) to give them information. 5) The mayor (Ron Matthews) chews out the sheriff (Rick Keith), as Pincus (Deb McCartney) looks on. 6) Debbie McCartney waits for her cue. 7) Intently reading a book is Jay Finlayson. 8) Cleaning woman Amy Clancy strikes a typical pose.

Eight Superior Ratings Earned at Science Fair

The Mansfield Senior High Science Fair was held March 11 in the Physics laboratory. There were twelve projects entered with eight superior ratings. Robert Slugg, Tom Carto, and Gar Marchant each achieved perfect scores of 40.

Paula Finical and Gar Marchant went on to receive excellents at the State Science Fair in Columbus.

Tea Room Adds Bright Spot to MHS

Students in the Tea Room gave faculty and students another year of enjoyable dining. Not only did the staff prepare excellent meals, but the Tea Room atmosphere helped provide a relaxing, peaceful lunch. Mrs. Zimmerman, foods lab instructor, served as advisor.

Draftsmen Have Active Year

The Vocational Drafting Club was headed by president Bert Mahan, with Junior Rose, vice-president; James Logan, secretary; and James Shoulders helping out.

The club sponsored many activities including car washes, bake sales, and a Christmas party. There were also field trips to local industries and a field trip to Dearborn, Michigan, with the Electronics Club.

Among the projects for this year were remodeling plans for Senior High's gym, floor plans which were used to build Distl Meats, and the plans for a revolutionary war cannon built in machine shop.

Auto Shop Students Learn Repair, Maintenance

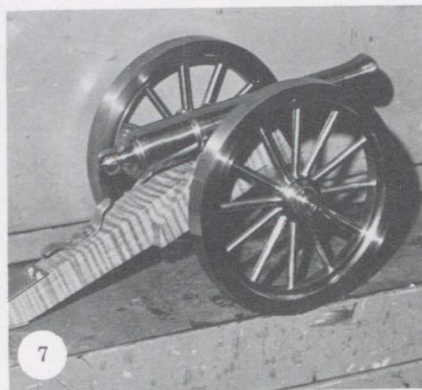

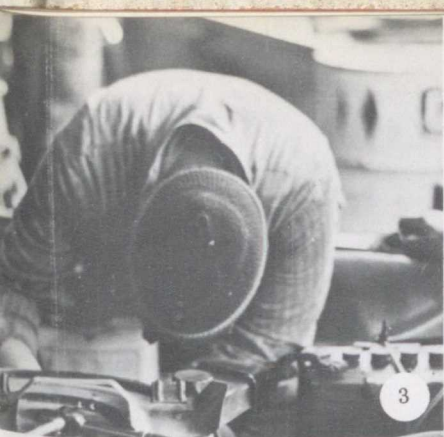

The auto machine VICA students learned the basics of maintaining and repairing automobiles. Among their capabilities are engine tune-ups, carburetor rebuilding, engine repair, front end alignments and service, and the testing of electrical systems. Cars are donated by Mansfield residents owning autos within ten years of age.

Machine Classes Learn to Handle Tools Properly

There was no actual VICA club associated with machine shop this year. However, students in this program learned the basics of machine tools. Among the tools used were lathes, milling machines, grinders and shapers. They learned to repair and maintain these various machines. After graduation students are prepared to be machine operators and apprentices. Finished products are kept on display in the showcase outside the machine shop.

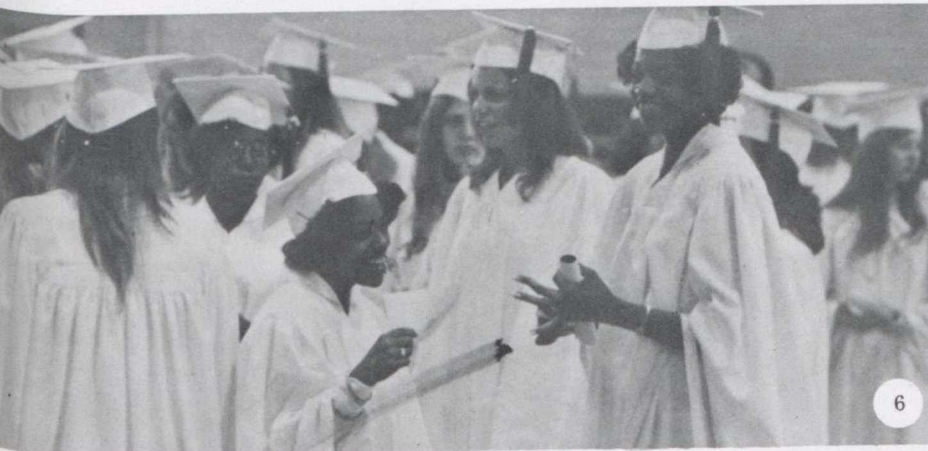

Seniors Recognized at Class Day

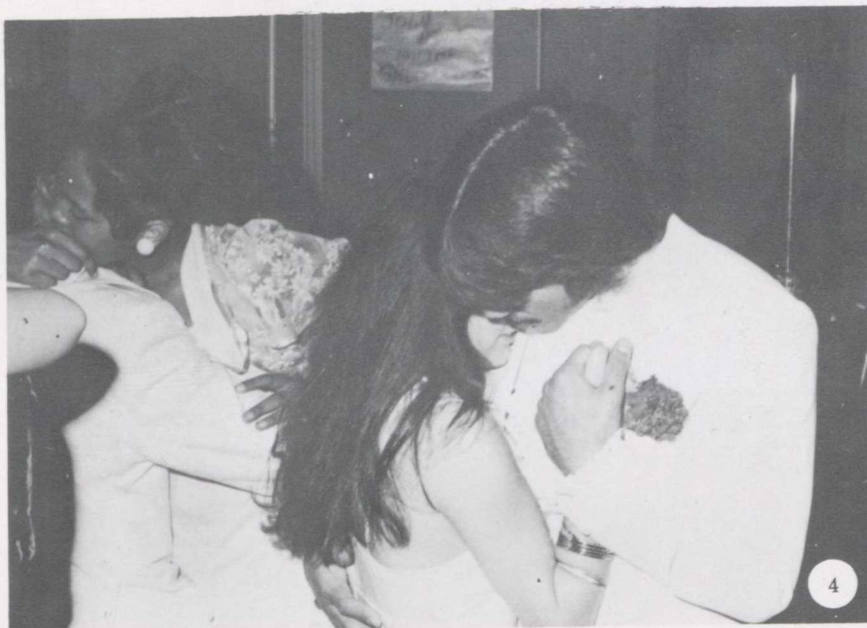

Class Day exercises were held on May 22 this year. Mike Paul was named valedictorian in a close race; salutatorian was Rebecca Stentz. Outstanding boy and girl awards as chosen by members of the Mansfield University Club went to Diana Bessemser and Ed Williams. All students rankin in the upper ten per cent of the class were given gold cords and tassels to be worn at Commencement.

1) Brenda Speigle accepts her Student Council award for BOE from Mr. Goode. 2) Mr. Derr presents the plaques in memory of Don Morrison and George Cole to the school. 3) Receiving the salutatorian medal is Rebecca Stentz. 4) Patti Stuht leads the girls into the auditorium for Class Day exercises. 5) Pam Peters, Paula Finical, and Brenda Bartlett come to the stage to receive their University Club awards. 6) Smiling faces are seen as students line up for the processional. 7) Mr. Flanagan presents the Pete Henry Award for the outstanding athlete to Paul Petrella. 8) The George Cole Memorial Award is given to Doug Wolf.

Seniors Hold Prom at New Mohican Lodge

"We May Never Pass This Way Again" was the theme of the senior prom held at the new Mohican Lodge on May 23. A buffet dinner was served, followed by a dance featuring the group "Brand New Funk".

After-prom activities began at one o'clock at the Madison Theater, where couples saw the movie "A Separate Peace". From there they moved to Park Lanes for bowling, pool, and music by the rock group "Phase".

Freedom of the press, a force for truth in this country, cannot be taken for granted. A good way to insure its continuance is through responsible journalism, practiced by young people in high schools across the nation.

Congratulations to the 1975 Manhigan staff for becoming involved in this important business of reporting and interpreting current events.

Thank you . . .

For the past year it has been a pleasure working on the Manhigan. I would like to thank the students on this year's staff for making it an enjoyable time. Special thanks should go to Mr. Earl Parks, the American Yearbook consultant, for the help he gave this year. I also want to acknowledge Bob Perman, who designed the cover of the book.

Since photography is so important to a yearbook, we are indebted to those who covered that area. Dave Dotson did a great job covering everything for both the Manhigan and the Hyphonerian. Smucker's Studio took pictures at many events and also did most of the developing and printing for us. The Mansfield News-Journal should also be commended for their cooperation in furnishing many of their pictures for us.

I especially want to thank Mr. Au and the business staff for all their effort getting ads, selling and distributing books.

Also at this time I would like to wish next year's staff the best of luck under their editor Cindy Jones.
